

[PDF doc no. 50021024 (page 2 of 50021171)]

[Fluent in] Ukrainian, financially: moderate, original class: peasant, normal public relations, good mannered, good reputation socially, has not served the mandatory conscription service as he postponed on the ground of being a student.

Politically: Baathist (partisan); party ID no.[redacted]. It has not been established that his immediate family members or relatives have ties with the negative or opposing political organizations and faith-based groups; it has not been established that his immediate family members or relatives took part in the demonstrations.

Religious activity: normal, not a follower of a specific denomination

- Born in Kuwait and grew up in [redacted] village where he graduated from high school; in 2008, he left for Ukraine to study medicine at a private university; he still visits Syria every year.

= information indicates that he took part in the anti-state demonstration in front of the Syrian embassy in Ukraine.

His father: works in Kuwait and frequents the country, a Baathist (partisan rank); his mother is a housewife, neutral. His brothers: [redacted] elementary school pupils. His sisters: [redacted] school student, a Baathist (active member); [redacted] preparatory school pupil. His paternal uncles: [redacted] dedicated fulltime [employee] in the bar Association in Boukamal, a Baathist (active member); [redacted] works in Kuwait and frequents the country, a Baathist (partisan). Maternal uncles: [redacted] works in Kuwait and frequents Syria, a Baathist (partisan); [redacted] and [redacted] work in Kuwait and visit the country frequently, neutral.

-It has not been established that any of his immediate family members or relatives are detained or wanted on political grounds.

Prior record: no prior political record

4-[redacted]; his mother's name [redacted], resides in AL Mayadeen, near [redacted], single; Education: high school, currently a sophomore in the school of medicine at Kiev University; financially: moderate, original class: proletariat, normal public relations, good manners, and social reputation, did not serve in the mandatory military service as he postponed on the ground of being a student.

= politically: neutral while inside Syria; it has not been established that he or his immediate family members has ties with the negative or opposing political organizations and faith-based groups, nor has it been established that any of his relatives took part in the demonstrations.

Religious activity: normal, not a follower of a specific denomination

Born in AL Mayadeen city where he graduated from high school; in 2010, he left for Ukraine for study and is currently a sophomore in the school of medicine at Kiev University.

Father: retired army officer rank [redacted], neutral; mother: housewife, neutral. Brothers: [redacted] is a worker and neutral; [redacted] is an employee in Al-Jabsa Fields; neutral; [Redacted] is an employee at the Radio and TV Centre in Deir Ezzor. Sisters: [redacted] is employee at the Directorate of Agriculture, Al Mayadeen City, neutral; [redacted] high school student, neutral. Paternal uncles: [redacted]: retired police NCO, neutral; [redacted] a worker and neutral; [redacted] employee at the Education Field Directorate in Deir Ezzor, neutral; [redacted] realtor and neutral. Maternal uncles: [redacted] arrested in 1983 by the Military Intelligence Branch in Deir Ezzor on counts of joining the suspect rightists.