

[PDF doc no. 50021171]

= information indicates that the mentioned individual has taken part in the anti-state demonstration in front of the Syrian embassy in Ukraine.

- Married to a Ukrainian woman called [redacted] full name unknown; a housewife and lives in Ukraine. His children [redacted] are young, father: deceased, mother: housewife, neutral. Brothers: [redacted] works in Saudi Arabia and visits Syria – neutral; [redacted] restaurant worker and neutral. Sisters: [redacted] are married, housewives and neutral; [redacted] housewife and neutral. Paternal uncles: [redacted] A falafel restaurant owner, neutral; [redacted] deceased, maternal uncles: [redacted] Baathist (active member), [redacted] employee at the Euphrates Oil Company, neutral; [redacted]: both are deceased.
- We have not established that one of his family members or relatives is detained or politically prosecuted.

= prior record: as of 2008 he was a Baathist (partisan), left for Ukraine in 1994 to study; approval obtained to issue a passport.

- 2- [Redacted] his mother's name [redacted], lives in [redacted] Syrian Arab, single; education: secondary school and currently freshman at the school of medicine in Ukraine; financially: moderate, original class: peasant. Normal public relations, good mannered and reputation, did not serve as he has postponed the mandatory conscription service on grounds of being a student.

= politically: A Baathist (partisan) party ID no. [redacted]. It has not been established that his immediate family or relatives are related to the negative or opposing political organizations and faith-based groups, nor has it been established that they took part in the demonstrations.

-religious activity: normal and no follower of a specific denomination.

- born in [redacted] village under administration of [redacted] where he studied until preparatory school and finished high school in Deir Ezzor; he is currently a freshman in the school of medicine in Ukraine.

= information indicates that he took part in the anti-state demonstration in front of the Syrian embassy in Ukraine.

Father: school principal of [redacted school name], a Baathist (active member); mother: teacher at [redacted] school, a Baathist (active member). Brothers: [redacted] Damascus University, early childhood education major, a Baathist (active member); [redacted] sophomore in sociology, Damascus University, Baathist (active member); [redacted] preparatory school, young. His sisters [redacted] and [redacted]: high school, neutral; [redacted] preparatory school; [redacted] and [redacted]: primary school, young. Paternal uncles: [redacted] peasant, a Baathist (partisan); [redacted] peasant, neutral; [redacted] peasant, a Baathist (partisan); [redacted] works in Saudi Arabia, visits the country sometimes, neutral; [redacted] works in Lebanon and visits the country sometimes, neutral; [redacted] military conscript at Hasaka, neutral; [redacted] worker and neutral; [redacted] preparatory school; [Four redacted names] elementary school. His maternal uncles: [Three redacted names]: work at al-Hal/ Cardamum market (vegetables market) and are neutral.

- It has not been established that his immediate family or relatives are detained or wanted on political grounds.

= prior record: no political prior record

3 – [redacted], his mother's name [redacted], resides in [redacted]. An Arab Syrian, single. Education: high school; profession: student of medicine in Ukraine (sophomore) fluent in [Ukrainian].